Did you know?
Birmingham has more canals than Venice.

Did you know?
The canal was built 200 years ago to carry heavy loads in the days before roads and railways were built. The canals were the motorways of the nineteenth century.

Did you know?
The Inuits developed the kayak for travelling and hunting on the sea.

Here are two pieces of equipment you used today. Label them and explain what they are used for.
